Integrative Medicine Grand Rounds Speaker Biographies

Dr. Michelle Dossett received her MD and PhD in immunology from the University of Washington in Seattle. She completed her internship and residency in internal medicine and research fellowship in complementary and integrative medicine at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center and received a MPH degree from the Harvard School of Public Health. Dr. Dossett sees patients at the Benson-Henry Institute for Mind Body Medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital and conducts research in mind-body medicine, the therapeutic effect of the patient-clinician relationship, and provider well-being.

Dr. Kevin Heist received his MD and PhD degrees from Stanford University School of Medicine, and received an MMSc degree from the Harvard/MIT Health Sciences Training Program. He completed his Internal Medicine Residency at UC San Francisco, and he then completed Fellowships in both Cardiovascular Disease and Clinical Cardiac Electrophysiology at Massachusetts General Hospital. He is board certified in Cardiovascular Disease and Clinical Cardiac Electrophysiology. He is currently an Associate Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School and an Associate Physician in Cardiology and Cardiac Electrophysiology at MGH. He is the Program Director for the Clinical Cardiac Electrophysiology Fellowship at MGH.
